Denese Johnson

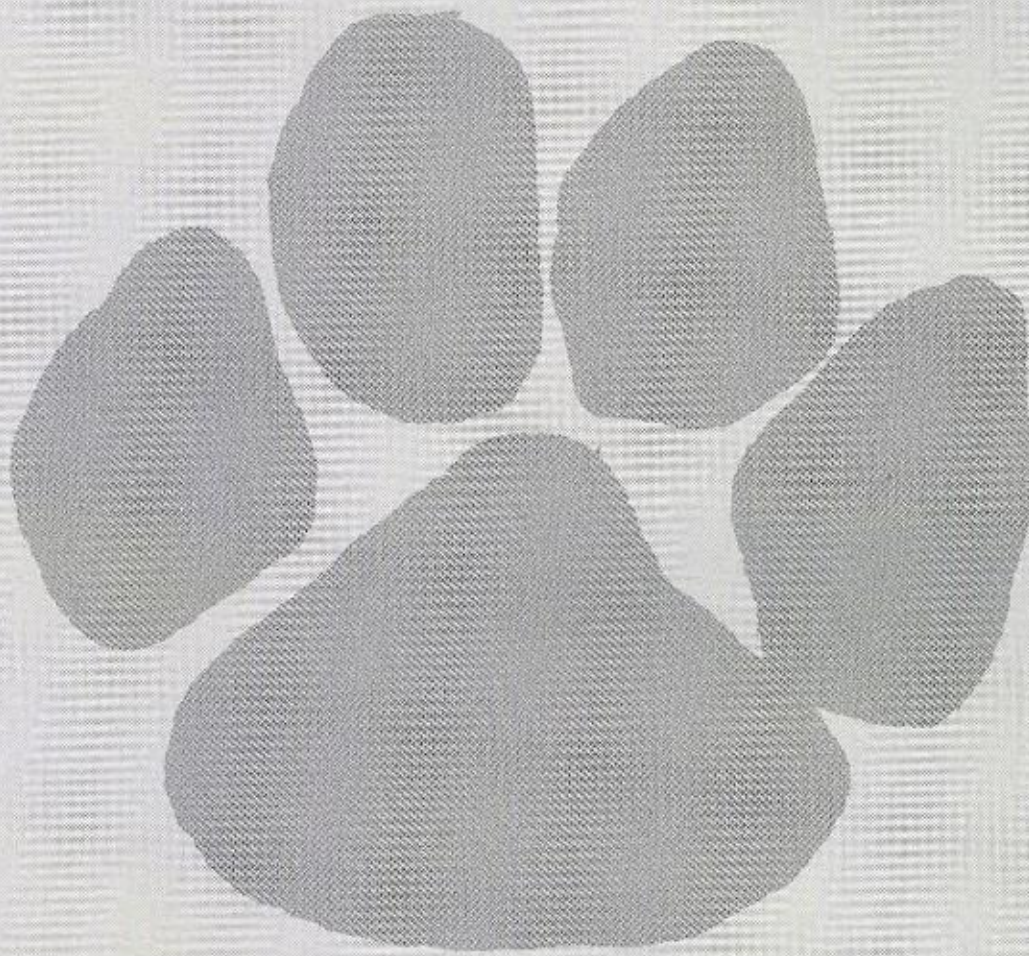

Scott Nation

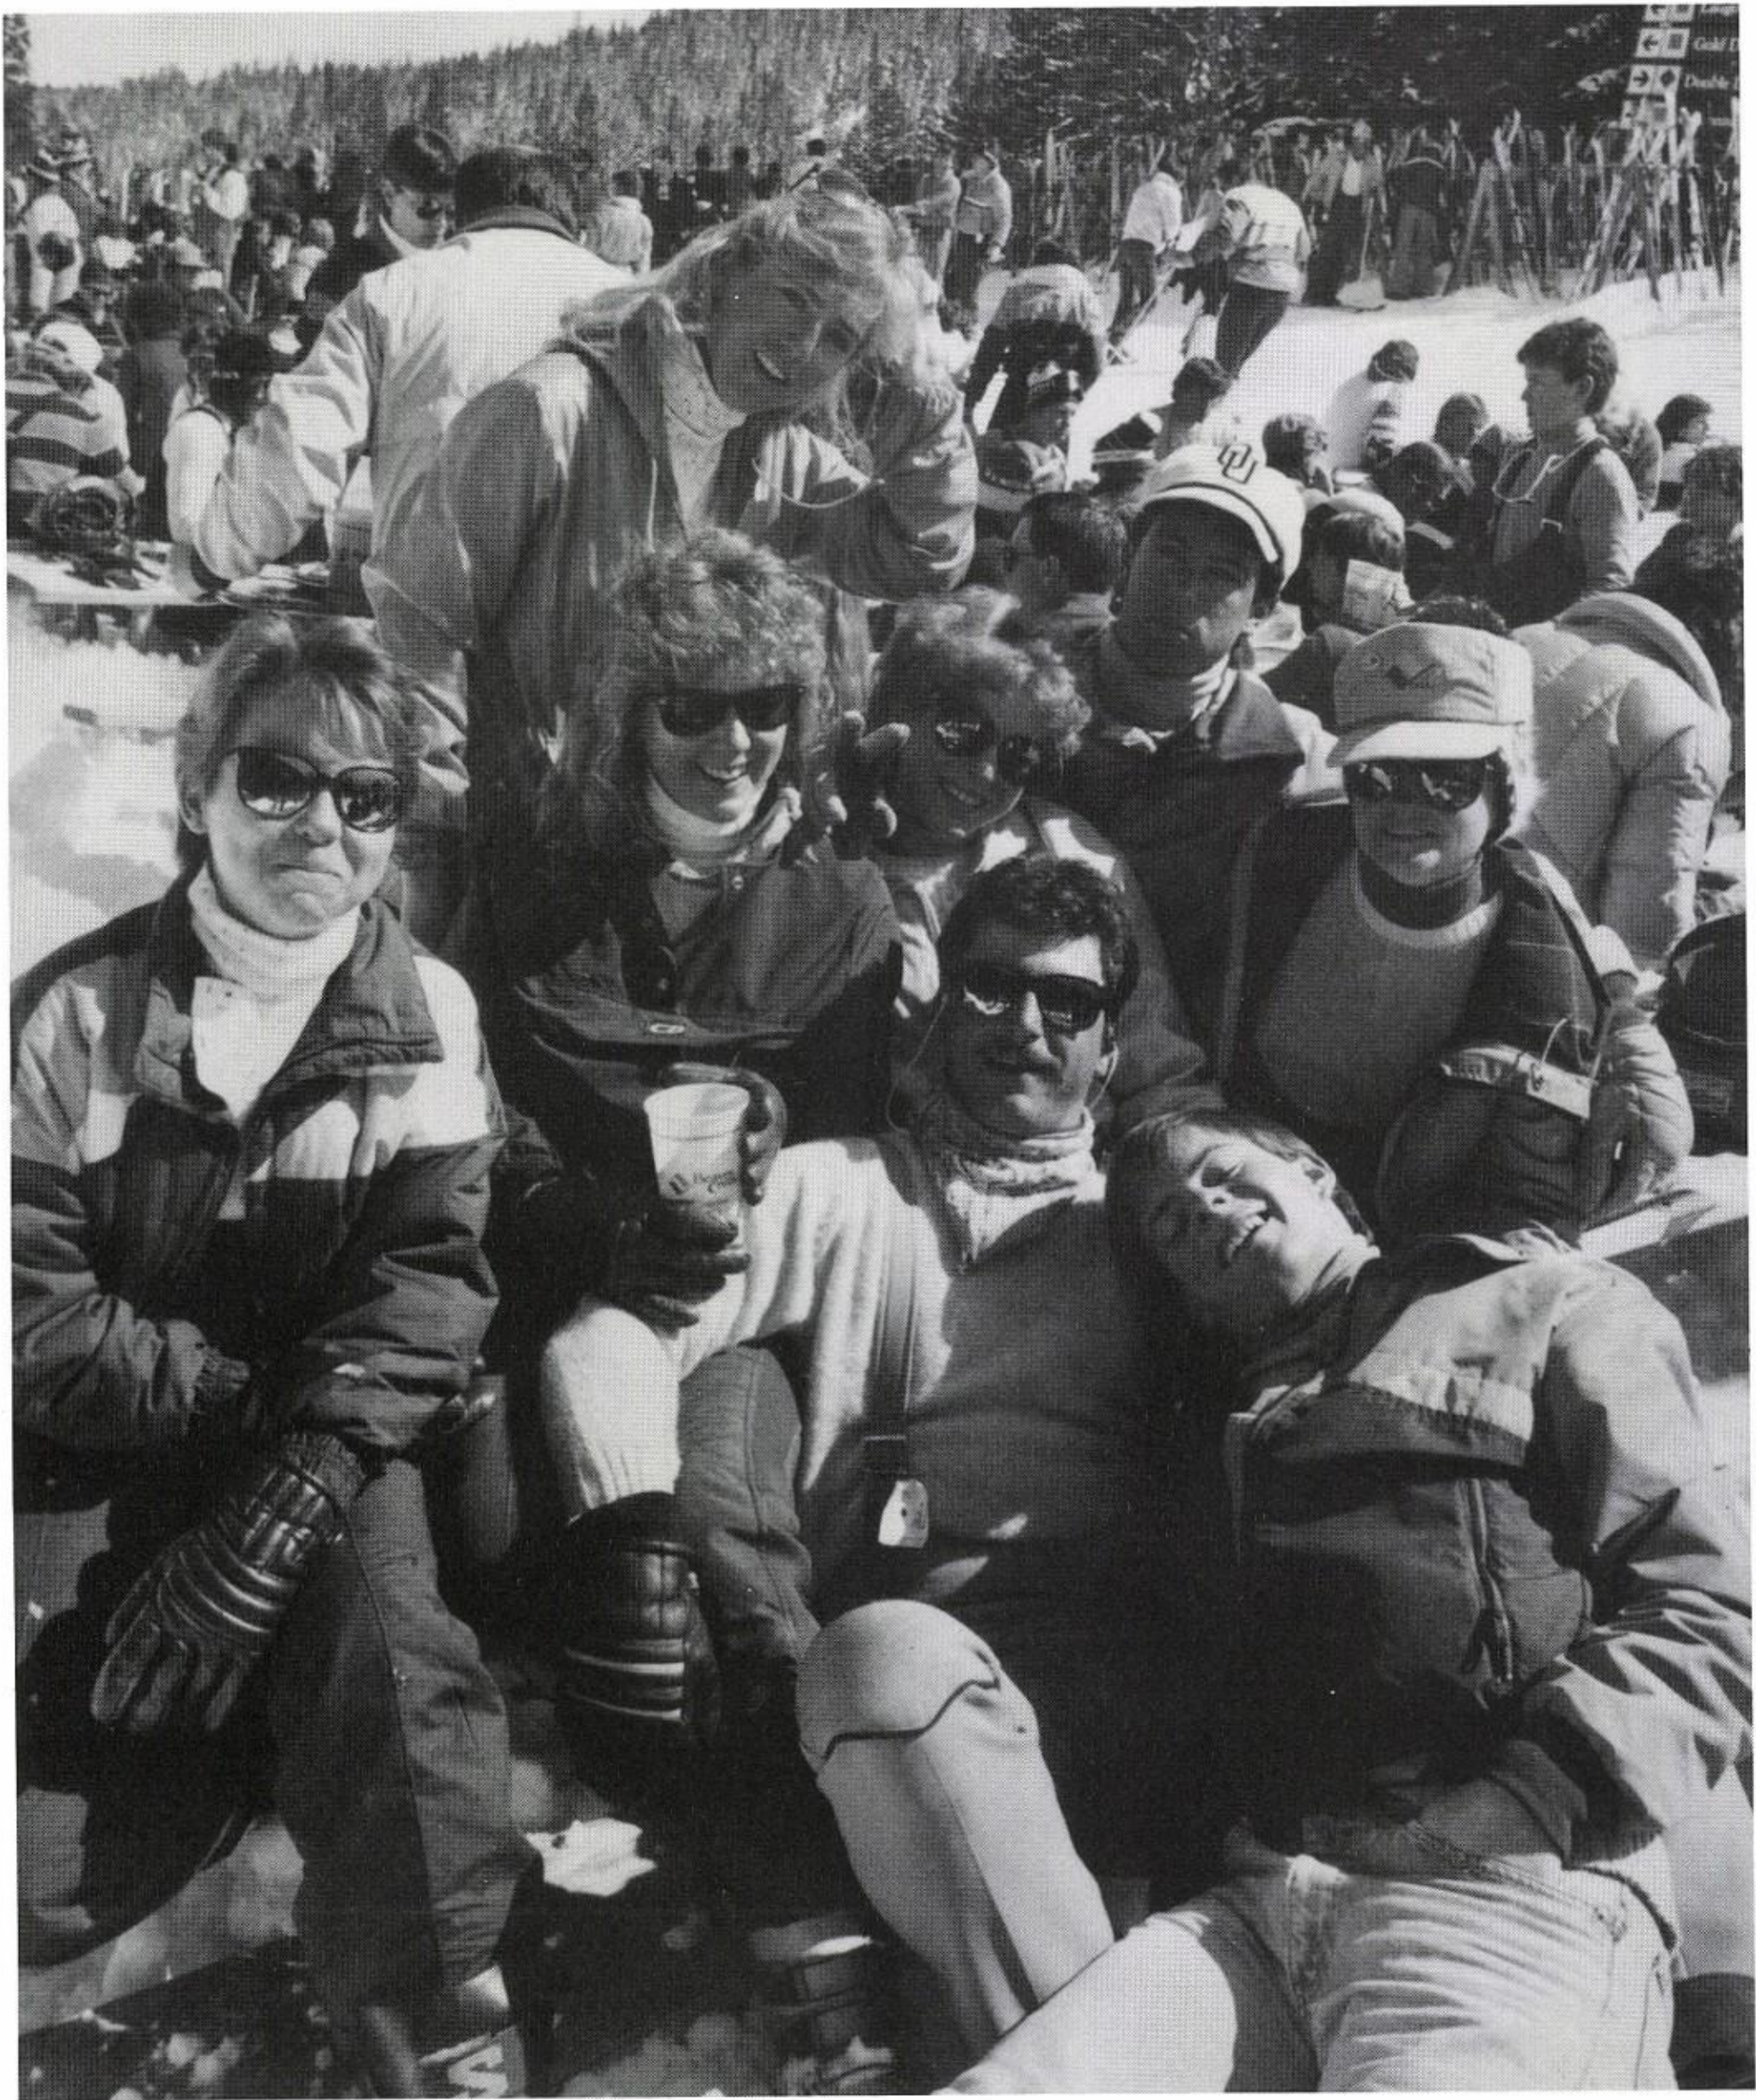

Yeah Panther!

A large black cat was sighted around the campus at the first of the year, but instead of bringing bad luck, this cat brings GREAT luck! The panther was enjoyed by all and one of the things that made it so enjoyable was the talent behind the mask; Scott Nation and Denese Johnson. They came up with some really funny skits that made the pep assemblies a blast. The Panther appeared at games, assemblies, community functions and parades (remember Scott got heat stroke) which made him well known about town. There's not a lot to say. Scott sums it up pretty well when he says "He's the greatest."

PAWPRINTS

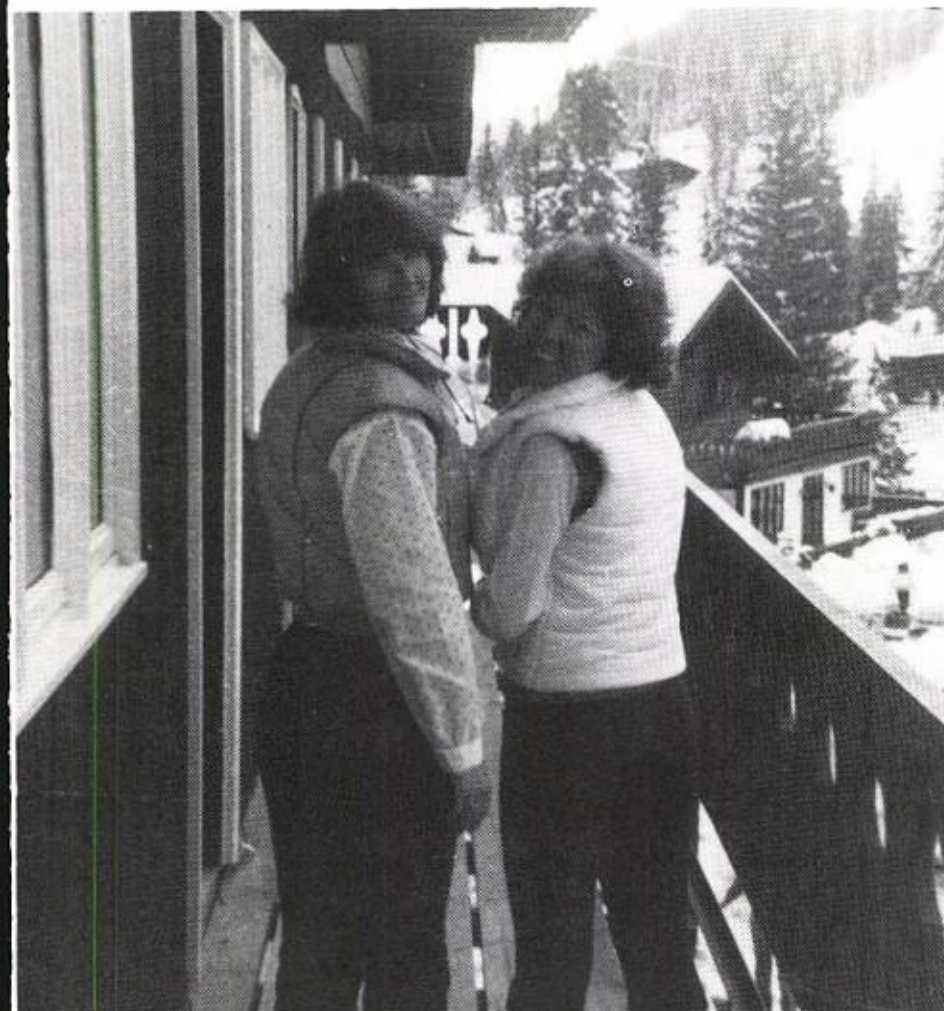

Who comes to Colorado to ski? We come to party!

Someone forgot to tell Julie Jones to go outside before trying to ski.

Shelley Bloodworth and her mom take time out to pose for a picture before hitting the slopes.

"Who put Lawrence Welk in my Quiet Riot case?"

"Super Scott" pulls through, or pushes through again!

SPRING BREAK

For some people at P.V.H.S. Spring Break was just a needed and well earned vacation. For others it was the conclusion to a year of scraping and saving every last penny for a few short days of skiing. When school let out for Spring Break almost everyone headed for the slopes.

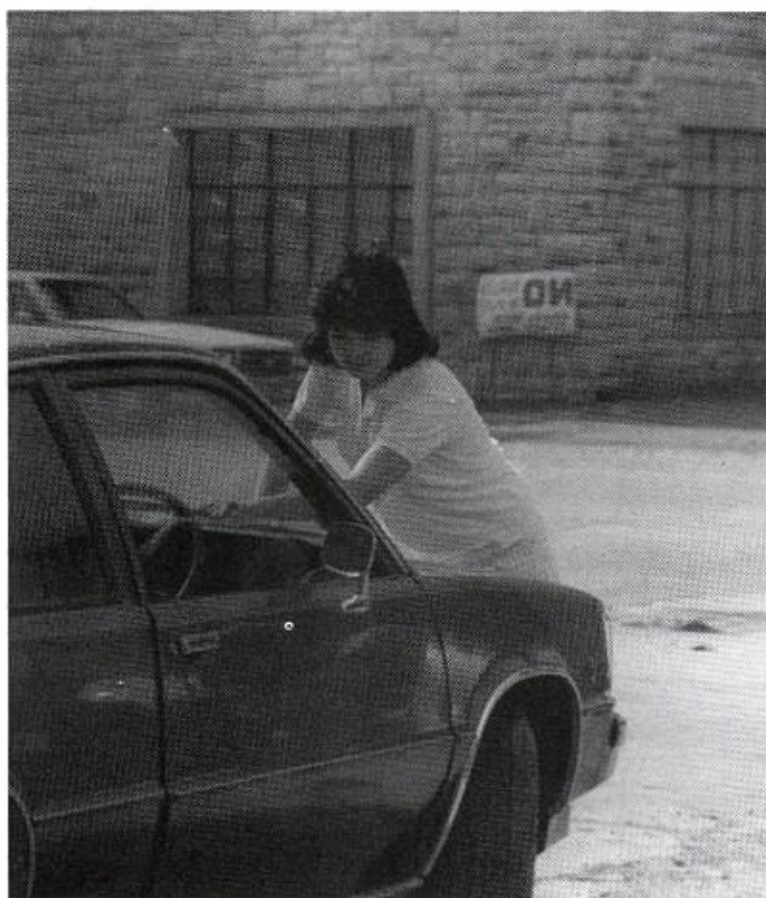

HOBO DAY...

As in the past, this years Juniors had their turn in earning the money for the Junior-Senior banquet. They also had the car wash like last year. Everyone was there having some good clean fun.

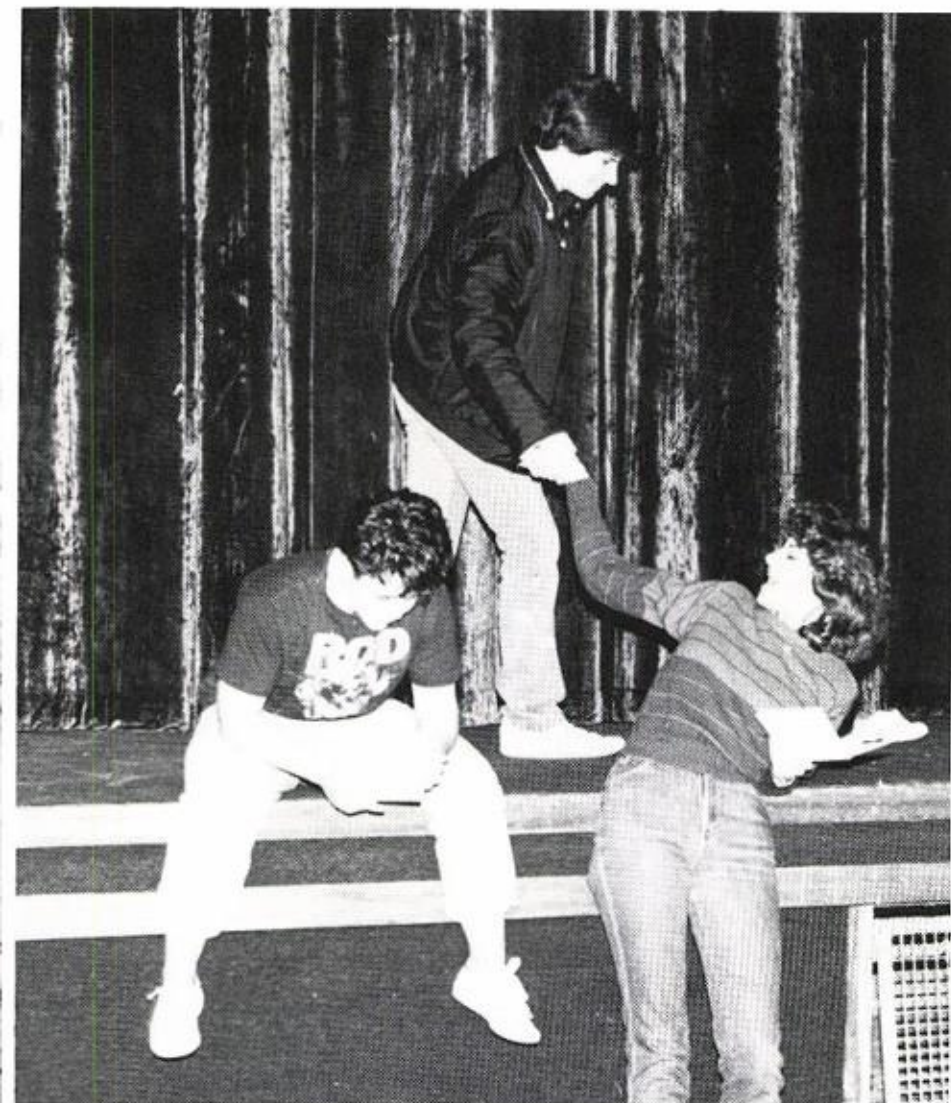

Don Russell and Chris Whitsitt don't mind working hard for the money on Hobo Day.

Auresa Averion is seen putting some elbow grease into it.

Kathy Nelson doesn't seem to know what to do with a floor mat.

Trying out for the All-School Play are Misty Deskin, David Ferris and Tammy Riddle.

Tracey Ford, Mia Johnson, Scott Nation act like its a typical school day. But no, its the play.

As the spotlight beamed down on the classroom, who would have ever known it was the All-School Play, "Up the Down Stair Case"? Though it was about a classroom the student body seemed to really enjoy it.

"To be or not to be what?" asks Shannon Woody.

ALL School Play

"Look! Over there someone is actually working!" Auresa Averion, Laura Agee, Carey Goggans, and Scott Wilson observe this feat.

Barbara Barton hugs a new found date for the prom.

The entrance to the banquet reflects a mine entrance from Sutter's Mill.

The class behind the banquet, the Juniors take time out from working to pose for a picture.

John Hartzog, Angela Smith and Forrest LeMay served at the banquet but clowned around before.

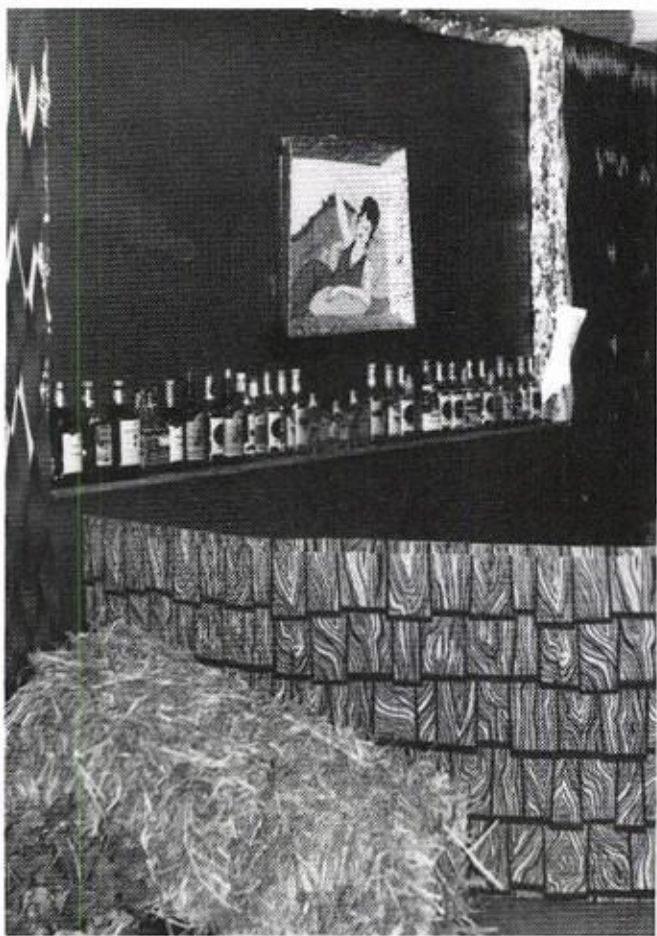

JR. SR.

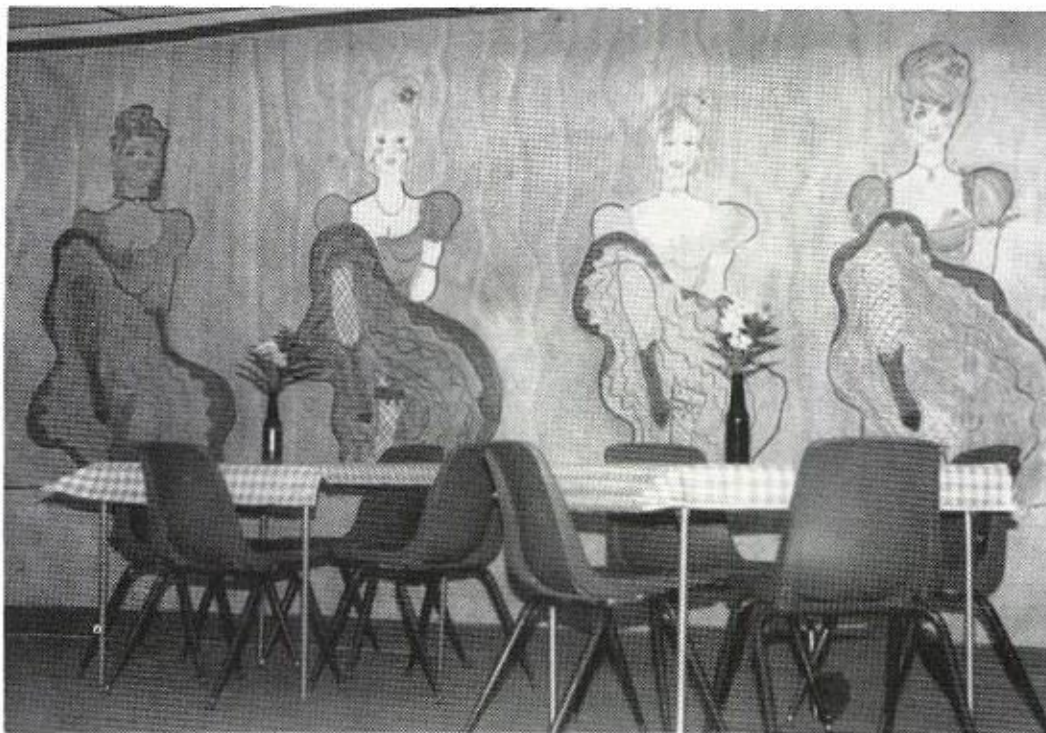

An anonymous parent arranges the hay for the Jr.-Sr. Prom.

Cheri Ginn and Linda Agee prove that parents like to clown around too.

The "bar" scene served cokes but looked authentic.

The can-can girls created by the Juniors "danced" all through the banquet.

BANQUET

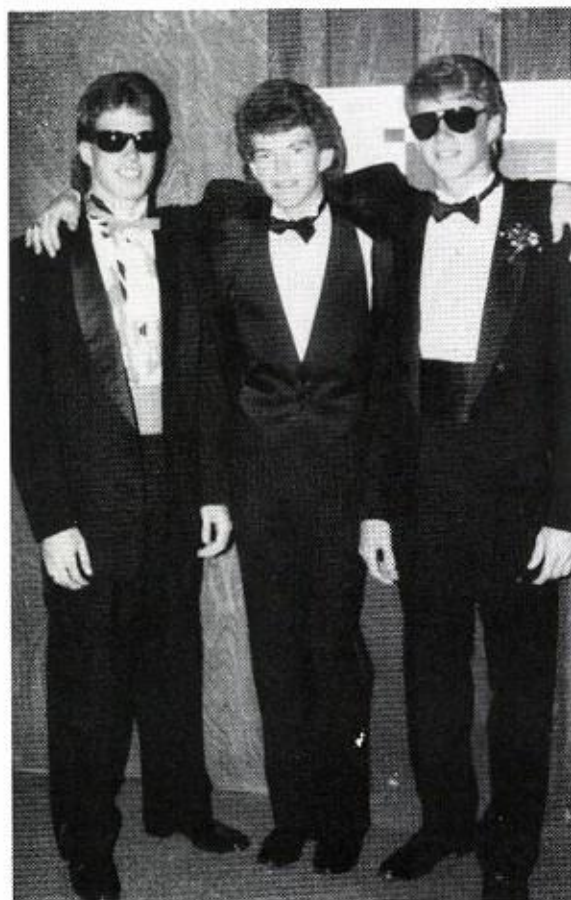

There's something funny going on here, Robert Jones, Mrs. Meinders, and Mike Hamilton sport moustaches?

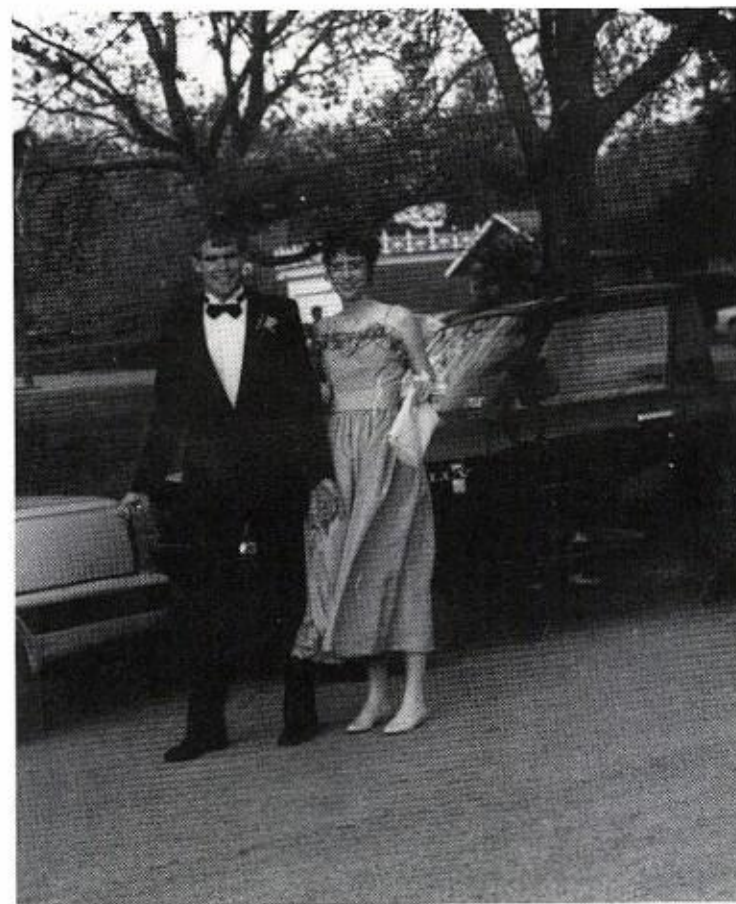

Patricia Mitchell, Lisa Evans, Michelle Hervey and Brenda Wade strike a pose for the camera.

Is that Sheri Henry and Meggie Brown in dresses? Yes! But Meggie looks none too happy about it.

Steve McKnight, Scott Nation and Joe Rex Trousdale think prom night is just another night to "Be cool!"

John Meinders and Kathy Nelson arrive at the prom, taking time out to pose for the press.

JR. SR.

Brett Thompson, Jim Winkle, Chris Whitsitt, and Mark Bynum wear their sunglasses at night, prom night that is!

Rodney Jackson and Traci Ford promenade around the Middle School followed by Tim Morris, Denese Johnson and Tommy Riddle.

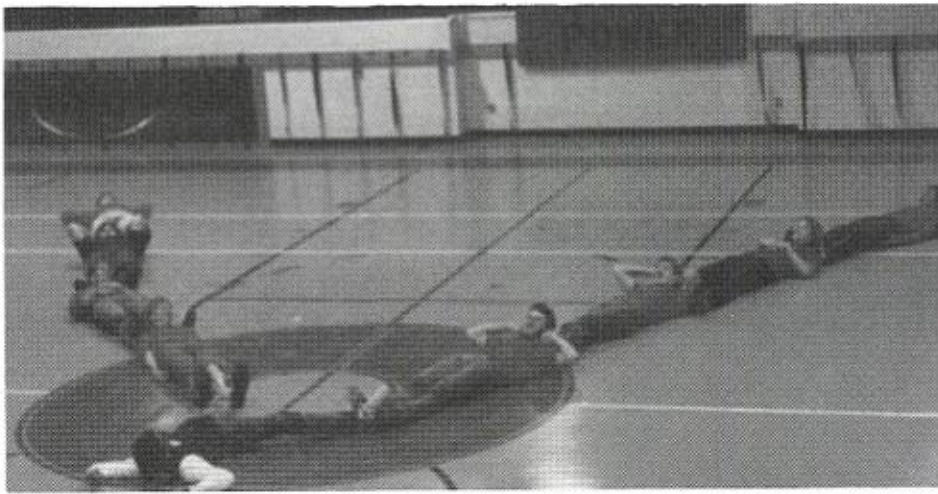

Nikki Livingston looks doubtful as she peeks through the door where the prom pictures are being taken.

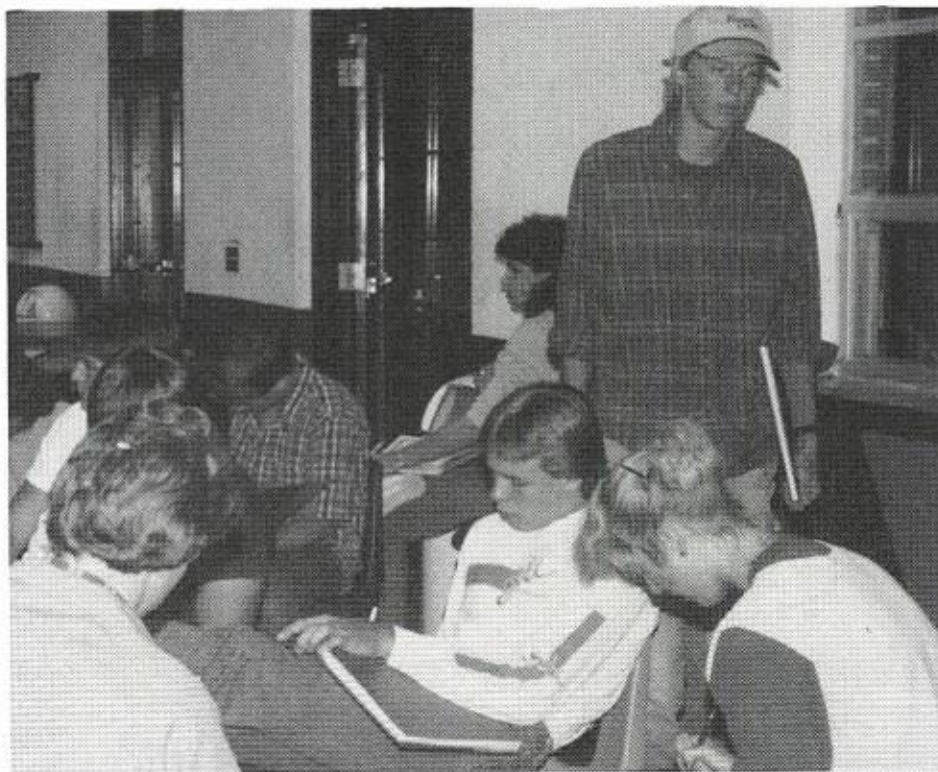

Carl McCann looks straight out of a Formalwear catalog, doesn't he?

PROM

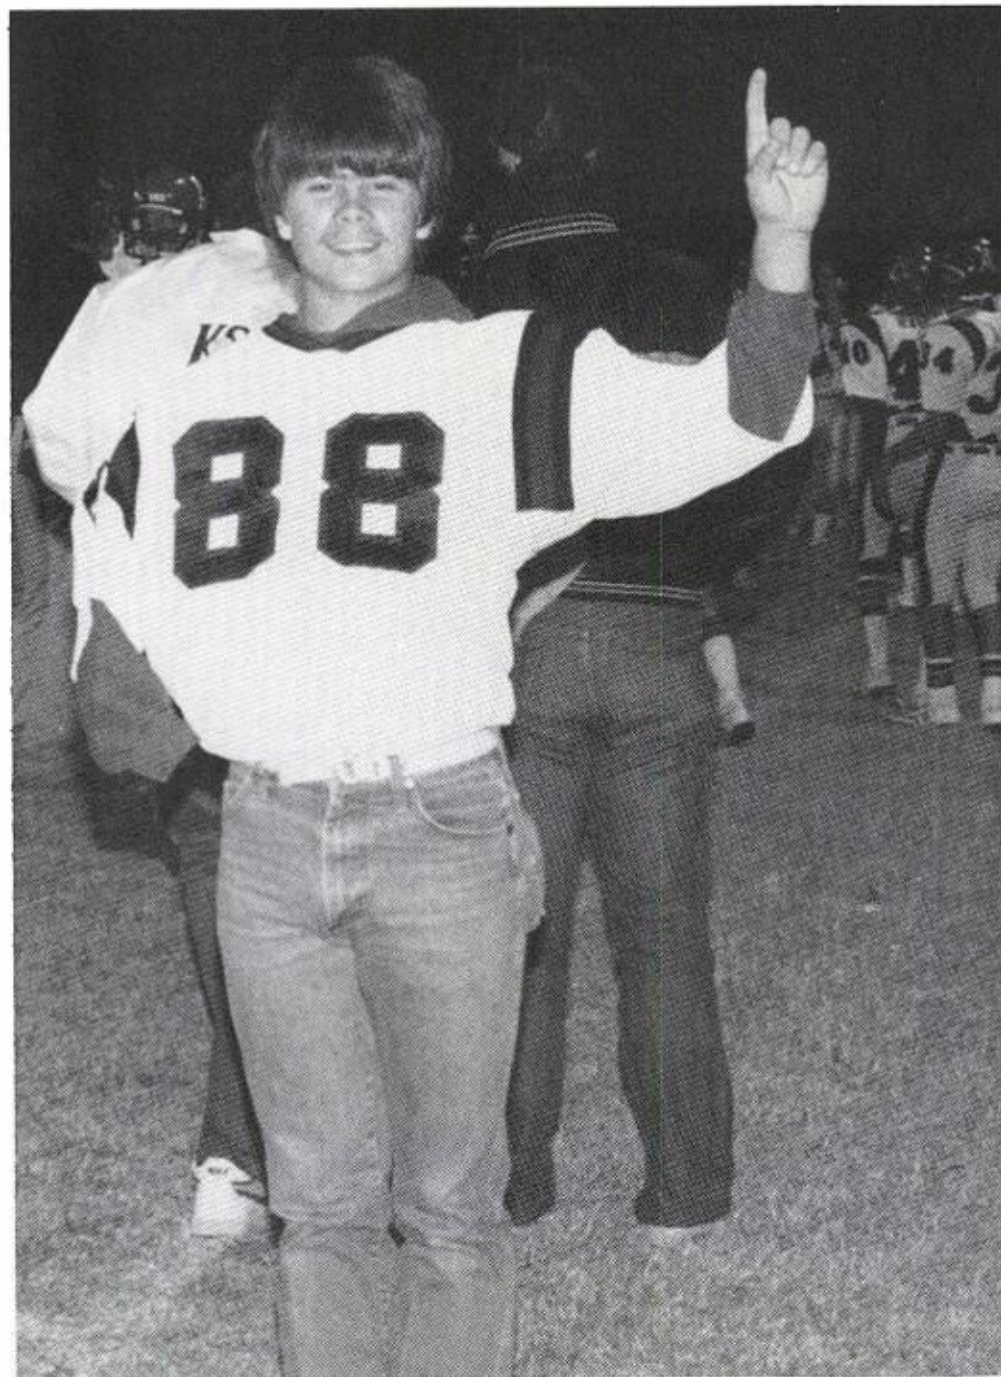

THERE ARE PEOPLE . . .

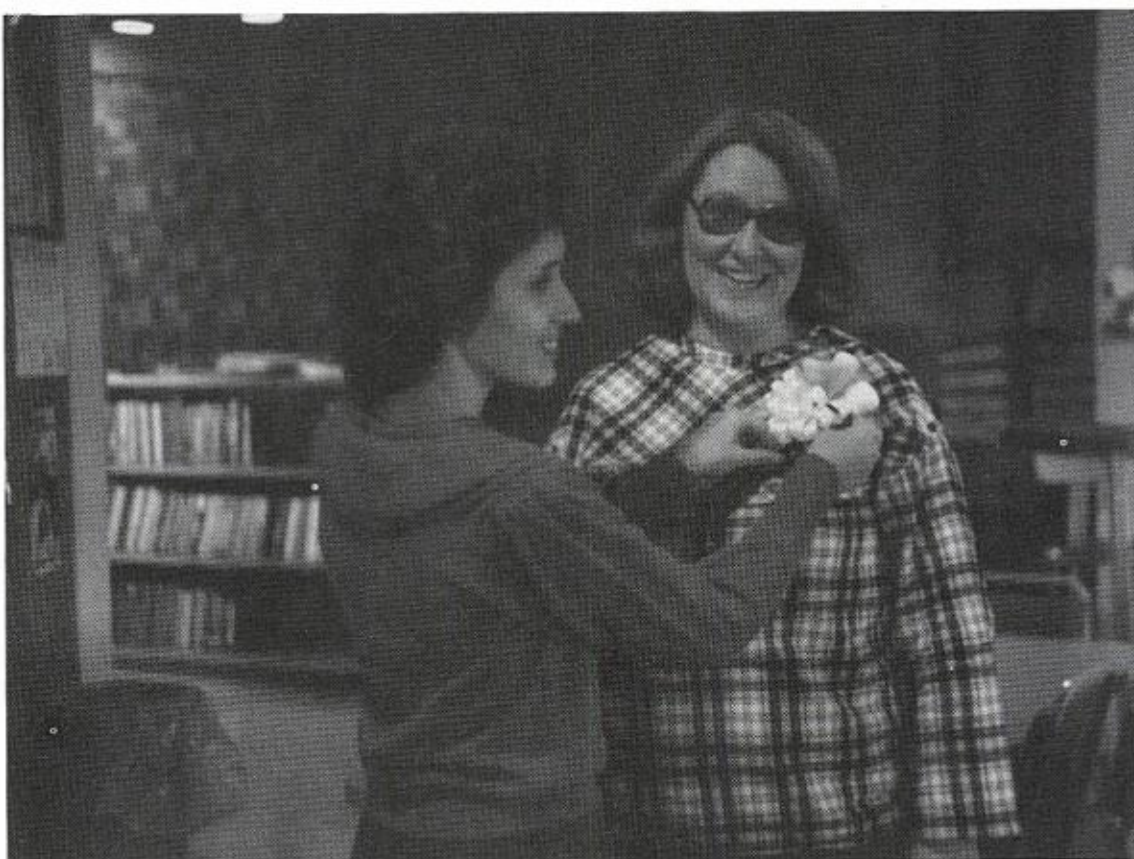

These guys are football players?

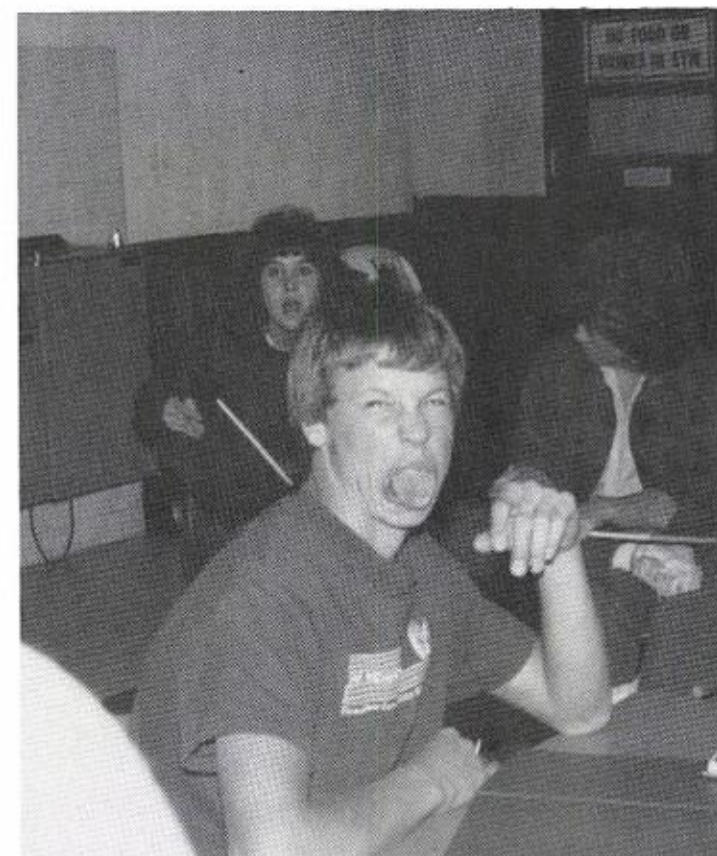

Matt Clark, Jonathan Grimmett, Marlene Morgan, and Scott Nation join in the fun signing Panther yearbooks.

Terry Dillard reminds us once again that the Panthers are number one!

Mrs. Watson lends a helping hand to mother-to-be Becky Brenholtz at her baby shower.

Curt Sholar displays one of his many talents at the yearbook signing party.

AND THEN THERE ARE PEOPLE

Kelly Mason, Marran Humphrey, and Laura Agee show-off their "better half" dressing up on nerd day.

Jodi Stephens aids Panther People April Thompson and Shelli Thompson while keeping warm during a home game.

Having A Great Time . . .

were these students and teachers doing some of the better things in school. There were yearbook signing parties, football games, and pep assemblies to be attended. These events were only a small part of the activities that kept people busy during the past year. P.V.H.S. isn't all fun and games, however, getting involved in the fun keeps school exciting.

We had our clowns, our dedicated football players, our devoted Panther People, and our expectant mom. These people and events played an important part in keeping the school spirit alive.

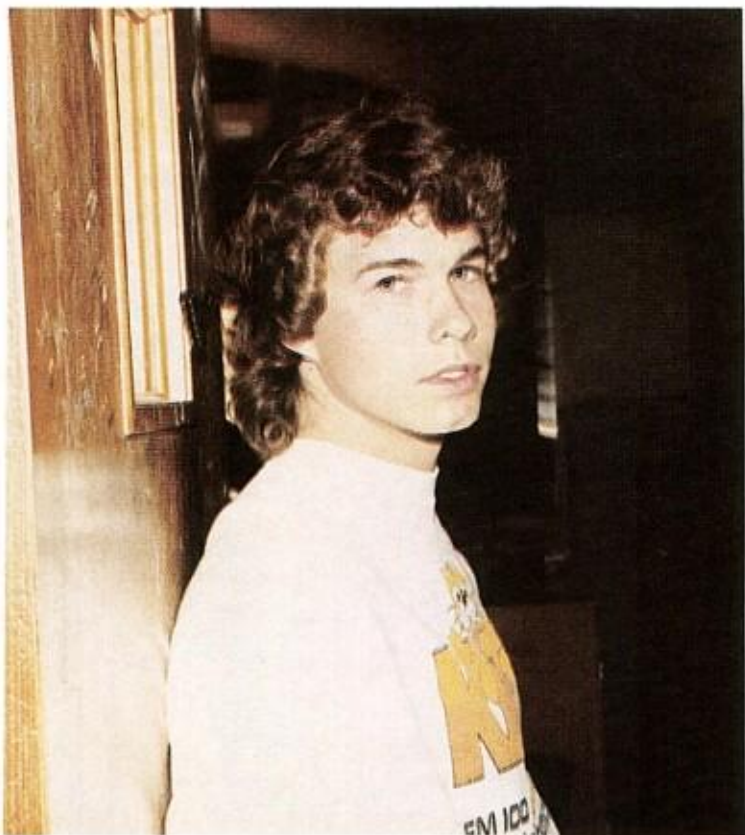

JUST AN ORDINARY DAY . . .

The dreaded "homework" hits freshmen Julie McCarty and Aaron McKinley.

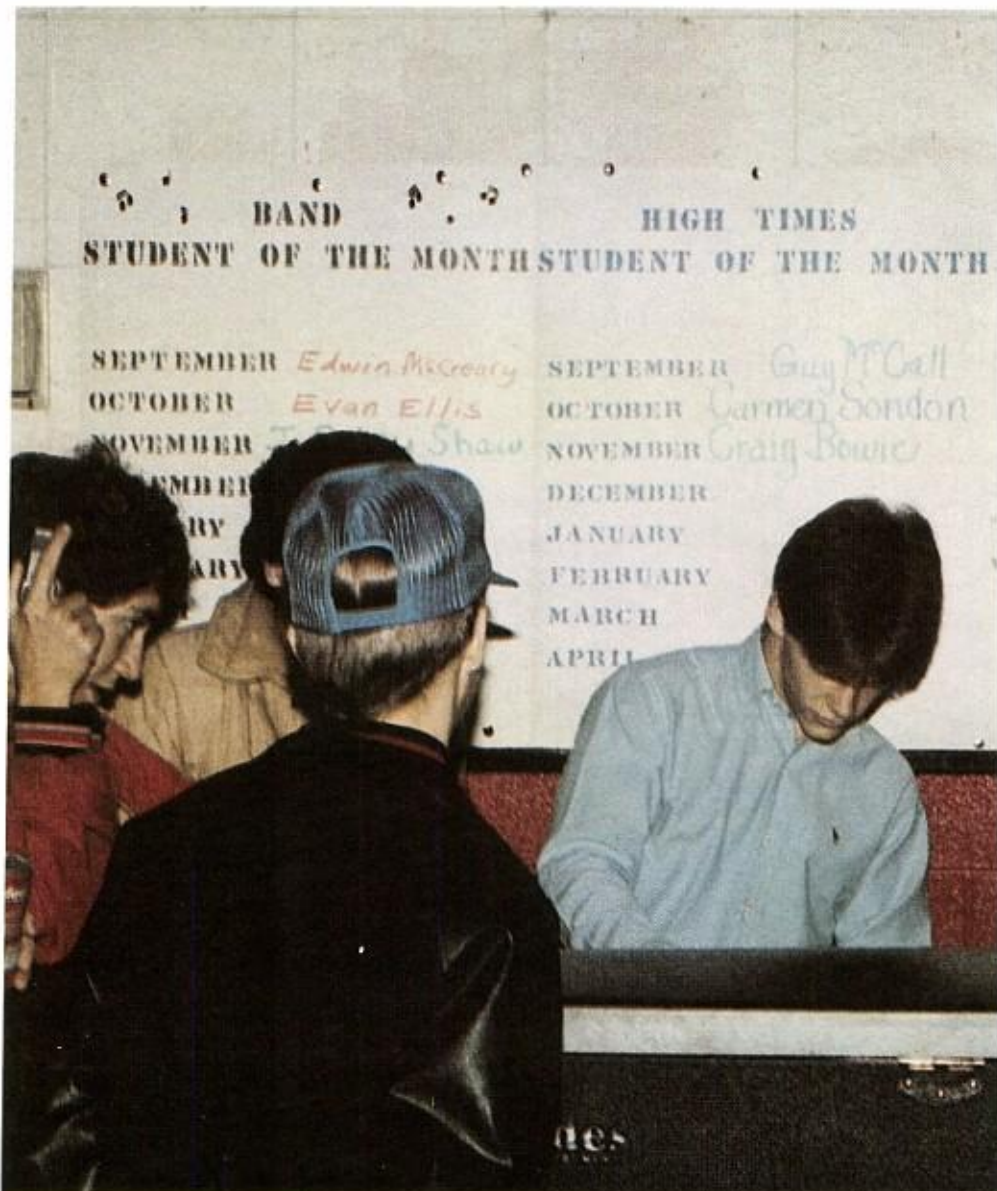

Independent living must not be all bad to Greg Buckner, Tony Williams, and Steve Brooks.

"What did you call me?" asks Don Russell.

Pete Flasch demonstrates his speaking talent.

Something must be interesting on the electric organ to Bates Tunnell and Craig Bowie.

Marlene Morgan in her natural habitat.

Mr. Moore gets his just desserts from an unknow student.

HOMECOMING

WHILE THE SUN SHINES

Homecoming morning began with the usual building of the floats and the other activities that are always included in homecoming day. Student Council members were kept busy as they rushed from place to place delivering mums and people involved in the queen coronation practiced to make their ceremony just right. Olympic hero Bart Connor served as the parade Grand Marshal and homecoming day turned out to be a big success as everyone eagerly awaited the big game and homecoming night.

Senior band members J. Riley Shaw and Craig Bowie clown around before the Homecoming parade.

The Panther makes a grand entrance and gets royal treatment as he rides down Chickasaw Street.

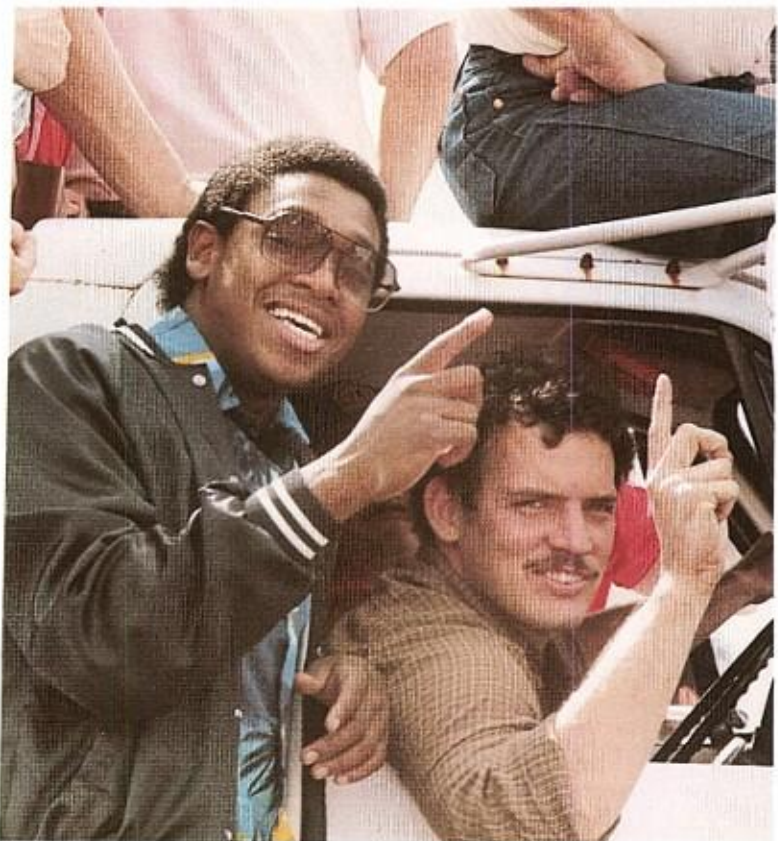

Is this Pauls Valley's version of the Hell's Angels? No, these are Panther Cheerleaders on wheels.

Tiffany Wilson plays the Tiger on the Senior's float " Torch the Tigers".

Patrick Stark learns a little about life as he looks on while Matt Clark congratulates Jennifer Holladay on becoming Homecoming Queen.

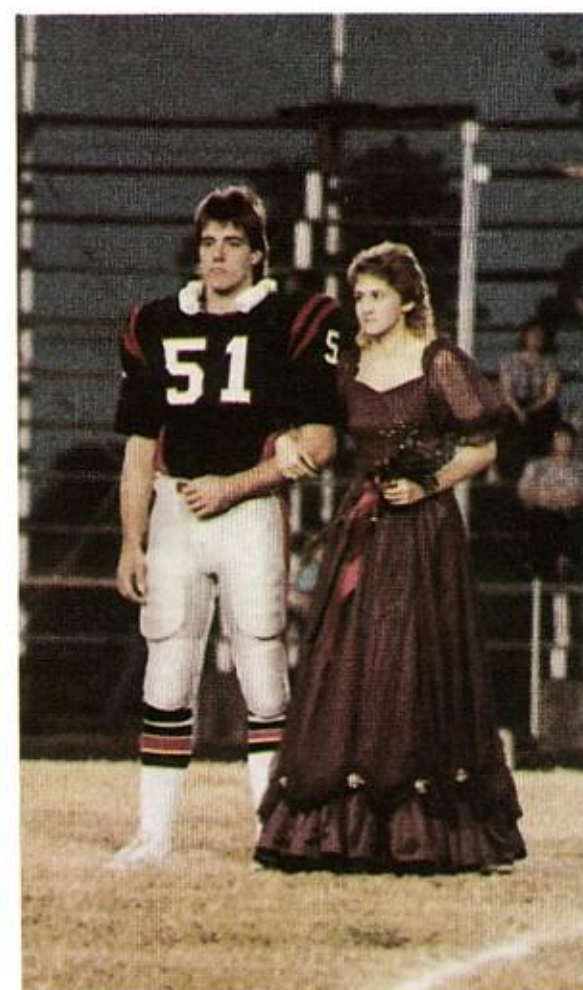

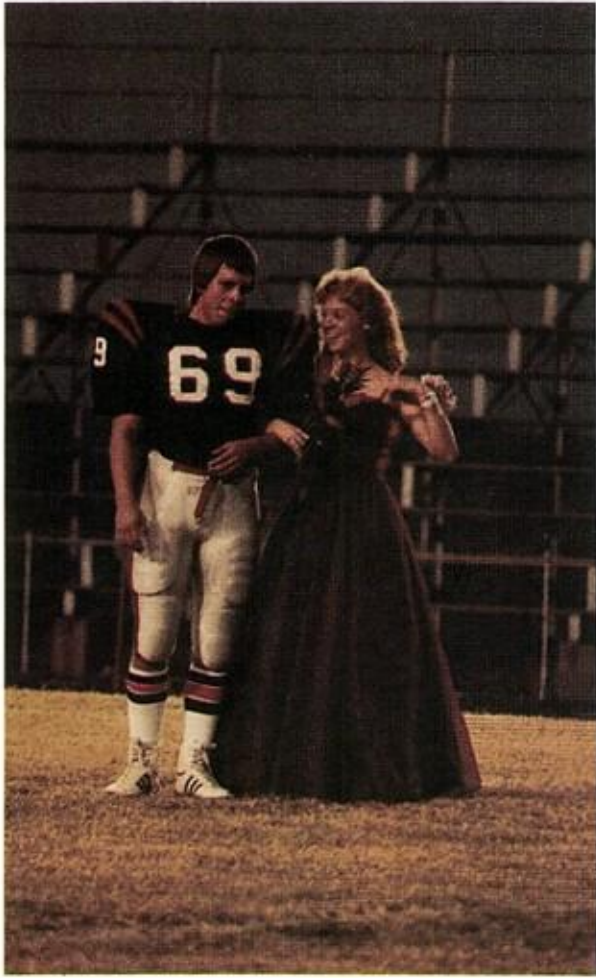

Marran is embarrassed, and Greg is laughing. OK Greg, what did you say?

Quiet as usual, Shelly Holder and Paul Talkington observe the Homecoming events.

The Panthers "Hail PV", especially after the Homecoming Game.

Keith Readnour and Nikki Livingston anxiously await the final moments before the coronation.

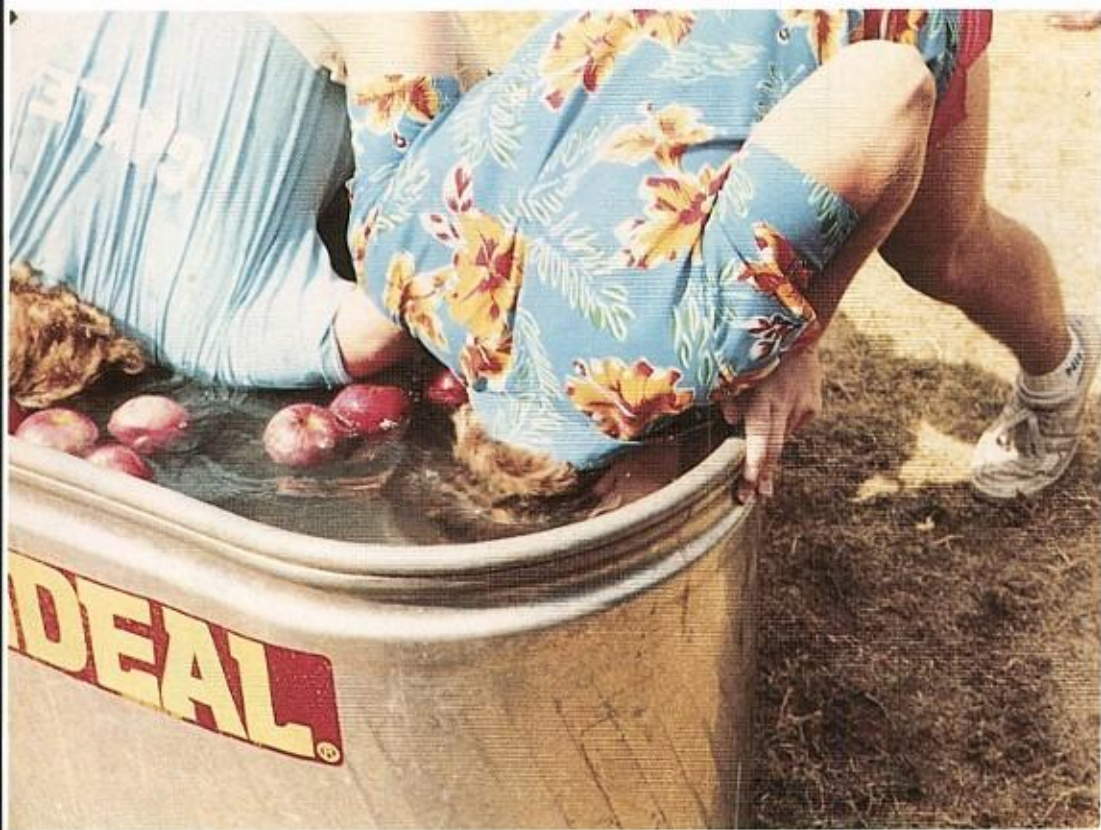

"Are we having fun yet?" Matt Clark and Jennifer Holladay wonder.

"Look at all those people!" crownbearer and flowergirl Patrick and Alicia Stark seem almost as nervous as the candidates and their escorts.

HOMEcoming

Keith Williams will do anything for an apple.

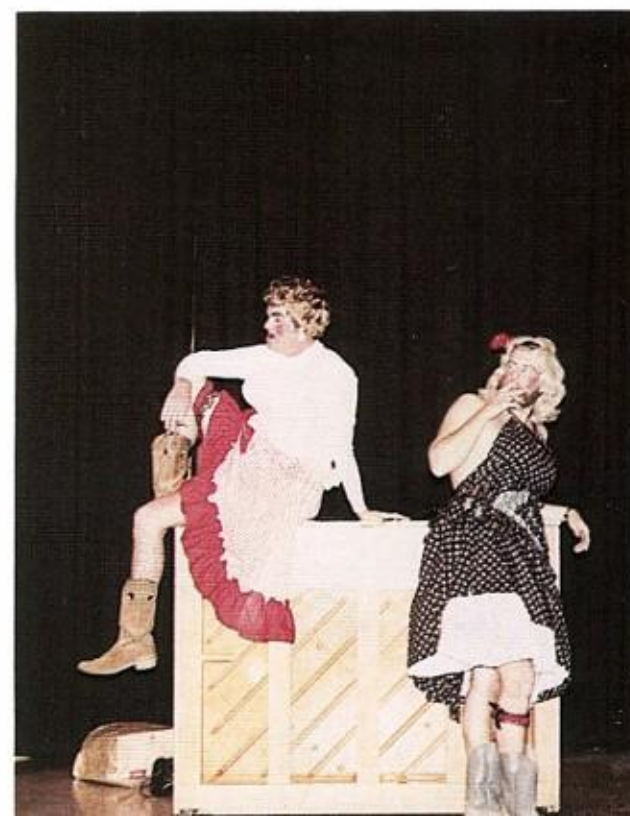

Don't shoot, it's me, Kathy.

Come on guys, give me a hand.

Playboy won't even show this much.

SPIRIT

Falling off her tricycle Melinda Ginn says, "I feel like a fool!"

This picture needs no explanation.

ACTIVITIES

If only Johnny could see me now.

Give me a break?

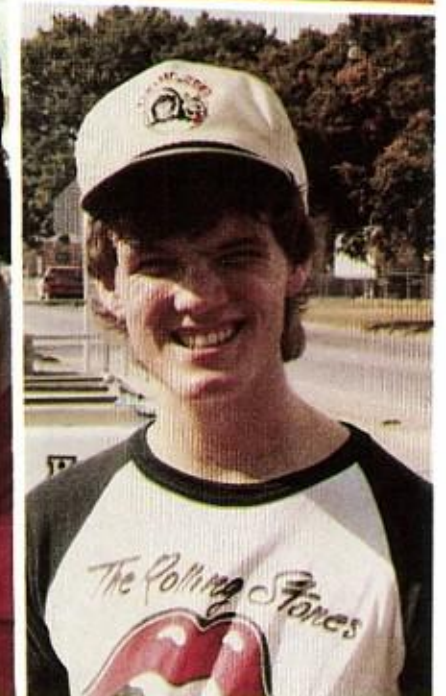

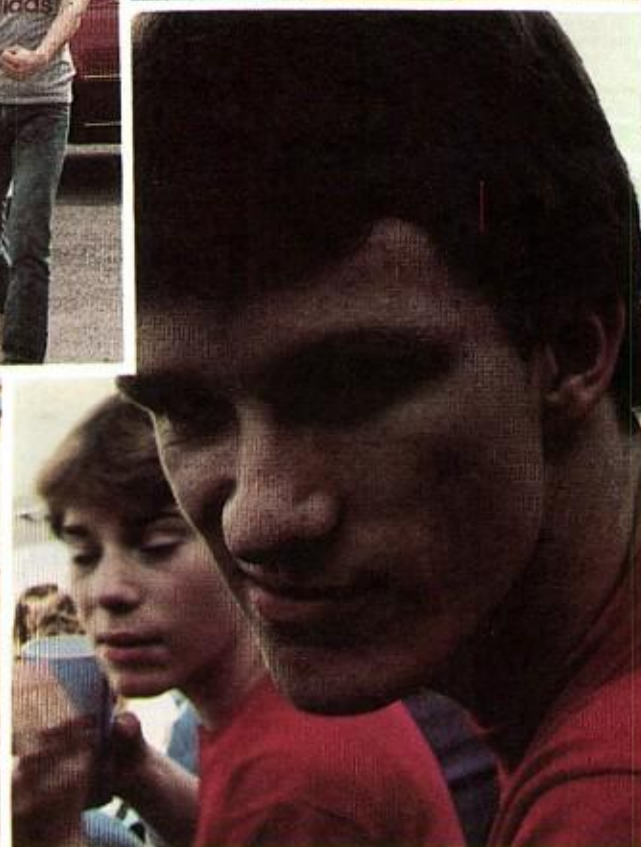

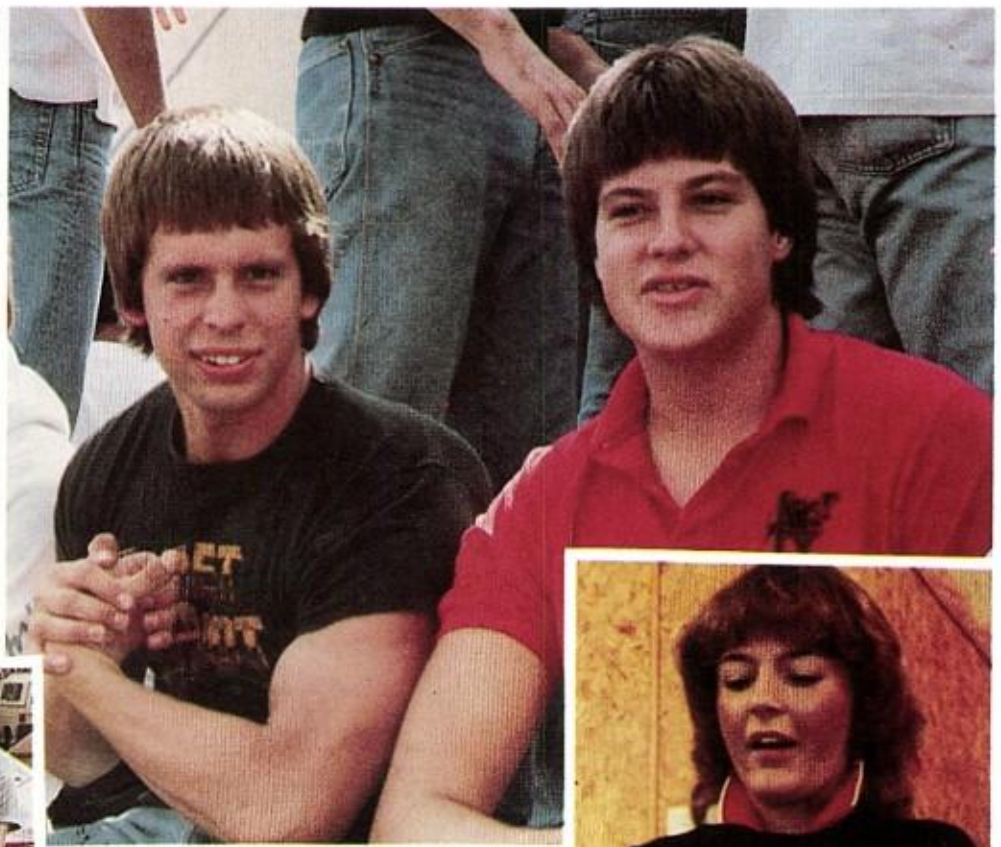

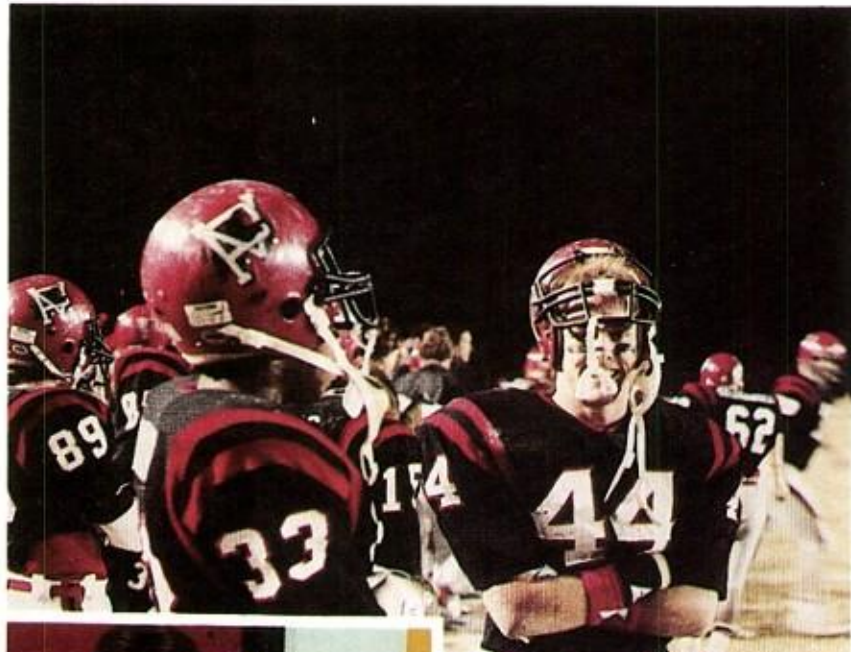

These are the kind of women your mother warned you about.

SENIORS

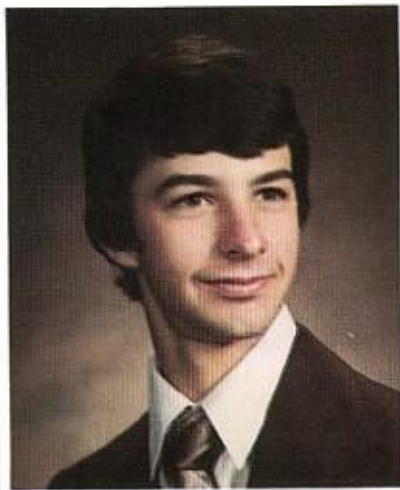

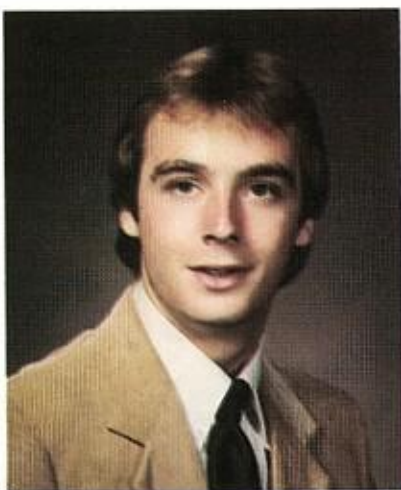

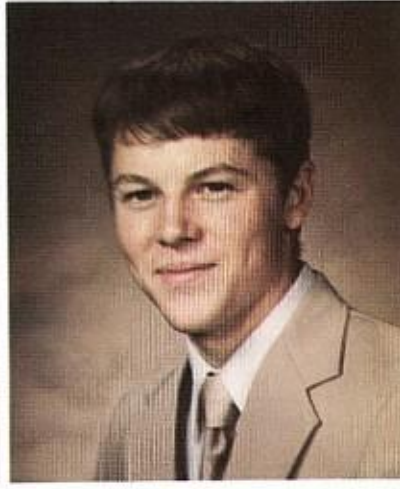

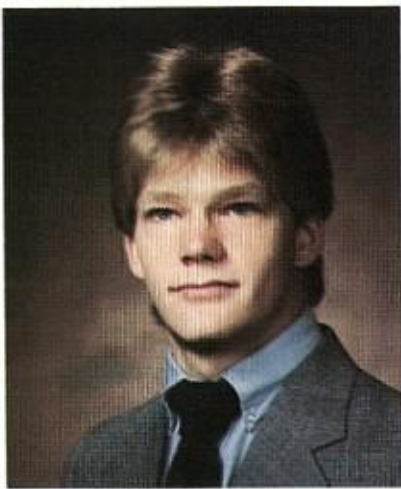

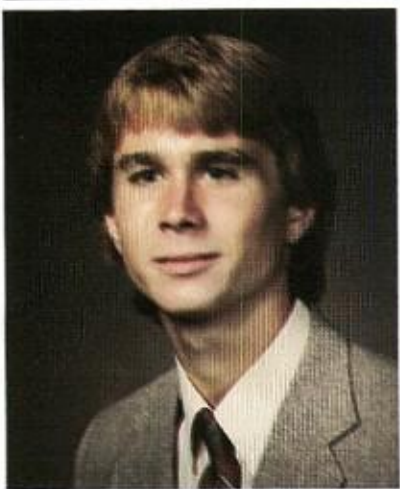

Beginnings are often marked by ends, yet always we will carry shadows of the past locked in crevices of our minds or captured on paper. The jubliance, the laughter, the excitement shared will never leave us. Like candlelight, memories will flicker and flash- the words from a book, moments spent with friends and moments spent alone. Here, we discover ourselves- the fragments formed a whole.

BEING A SENIOR . . .

What does being a senior mean? It is a feeling, an emotion and a growing up process. It is a time when we are given a chance to be ourselves without totally being out on our own. It is a time when we can learn many things about life and the world beyond our homes and schools.

We have our whole lives ahead of us, and we have to decide which path in life to travel. We cannot make each others decisions; we can only give support.

The honor of being a senior holds many responsibilities. It is a year when we are young enough to enjoy being "kids" but old enough to know what we want out of life.

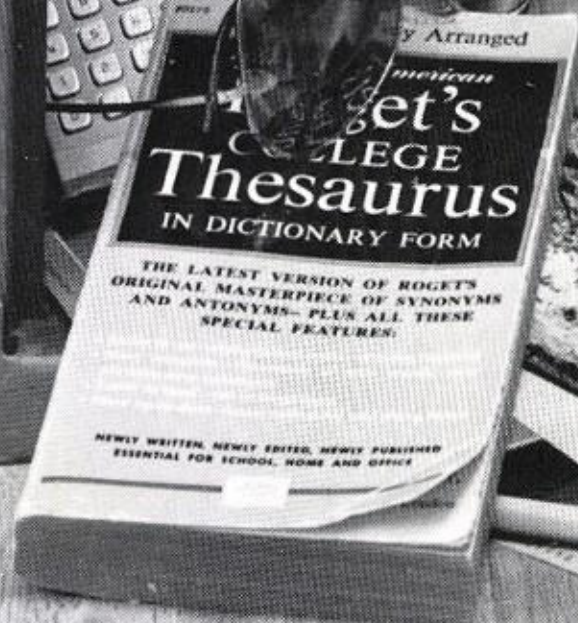

It's also like being on a merry-go-round. It seems to move too slowly, but it's sad when the ride is over.

Graduation will come too soon. It scares us to know that in a few short months new experiences and responsibilities will come our way.

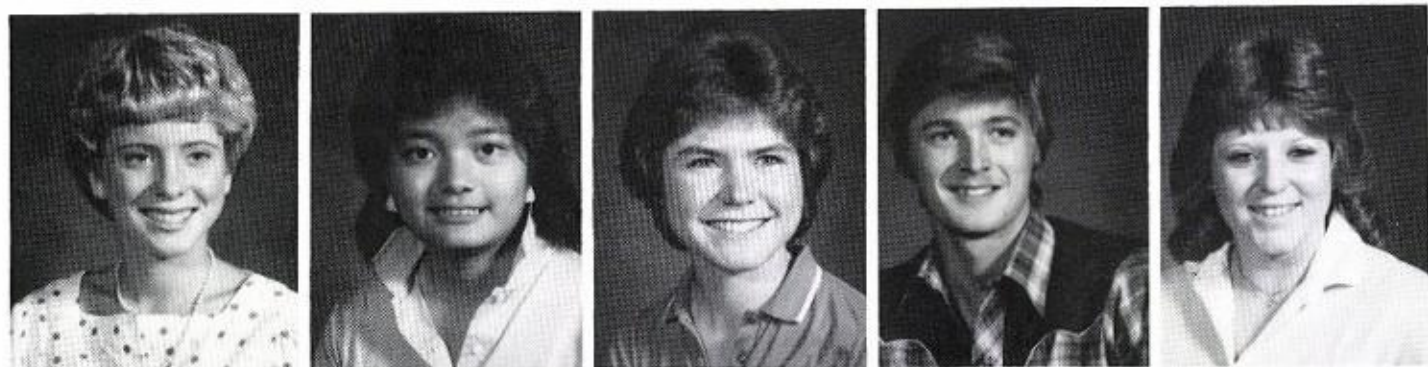

Take time underclassmen. Wake up and look beyond today. Our advice is to learn from the past, live for the present, and reach for the future.

New Faces In Different Places

Three new faces could be seen at PVHS this year. Mary Meinders, Loetta Cariker and Hal Brenholtz brought their talents and abilities to help the students.

Mary Meinders taught at Wynnewood before coming to PV. She keeps busy offering resources to teachers and students. She enjoys helping students. In using the library as an exhibit area, she hopes to make the library a place that the whole student body can be proud of.

Mrs. Cariker is a Learning Disability Consultant for PVHS. She also works as a speech therapist for the Coop and travels to Garvin and Murray Counties.

Mr. Brenholtz has been a familiar substitute around the school. Second semester he filled in as World History teacher. He received his teaching certificate in 1981.

MARCHING PANTHERS

The Pauls Valley band has a long history of excellence and the 1984-85 year proved to be no exception. The year began during the hot summer days of August and band students practiced for two weeks before the start of school. Hard work followed and when time came for the first football game the Marching Panthers were anxious and ready to perform.

The band played during Basketball Homecoming, the Special Olympics, and the Mid-Winter Concert. The trip to the Dallas Parade of Champions was made in October and Michelle Johnson was crowned Queen at the annual band banquet. Overall the year was a great success and much progress was made for next year.

Band royalty Jeanette Nation, Michelle Johnson, and Cathy Summers. Their escorts are Craig Bowie, Edwin McCreary and J. Riley Shaw.

Is this a picture of Marching Panthers showing the Lindsay band how to perform? It looks that way.

High Times this year consisted of 12 members who were chosen at the beginning of the school year. They performed at various times at the High School and at many other events including the Foreign Language banquet and the PTO banquet.

Since its beginning 2 years ago, Pi Phi Pi has been one of the most successful clubs at P.V.H.S. It has also had one of the largest memberships of any of the clubs. This year Pi Phi Pi made some changes. They had a new director, Patrick Nolen, and the Pi Phi Pi house is now open at night for students to come and watch movies or just to see friends. They also sponsored various other activities during the year, such as the homecoming dances, and the Pi Phi Pi Christmas party.

Bill Ponder, Denese Johnson and friends get together at the Pi Phi Pi house after a basketball game.

As in the years before Pi Phi Pi had a very large membership this year.

CHEERLEADERS WIN SPIRIT STICK

The PVHS cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleader Association camp held at Camp Shamrock in Eufaula this summer.

The squad members, including Scott Nation and Denese Johnson, proved they had spirit by being the winner of the spirit stick every night. This was the highest award given daily. At the close of the week, the cheerleaders were awarded the spirit stick for the outstanding job they had done.

The top five squads competed for the Award of Excellence. The PV squad was runner-up and received superior ribbons every night.

The Cheerleaders spent a week of their summer selling fireworks at two locations to raise funds for uniforms and equipment.

WE GOT SPIRIT - says squad members Lisa Lucas, Lisa Bonner, Laura Agee, Angela Smith, Julie Jones, Nikki Livingston, Marran Humphrey, and Jennifer Holladay.

The Panther is always in on the action.

The cheerleaders always show their appreciation to the football team during pep assemblies. Keith Readnour acts like it's just another day.

The football team decided to give the cheerleaders a rest, but it looks like Matt Clark has more than he can handle.

It looks like the cheerleaders and the team already know the outcome of the Lindsay game.

MATMAIDS

The Matmaids worked very hard this year. The group performed admirably not only by cheering for their favorite wrestlers, but also by assisting in the P.V. Invitational wrestling tournament.

FROSH CHEER SQUAD

Freshmen Cheerleaders-Heidi Henderson, Julianayna Solomon, Penny Wood, Traci Bracksieck, Carrie Clark and Head Cheerleader-Julie McCarty.

The Freshmen cheerleaders worked very hard this year. They received many awards and learned a lot at camp during the summer. During the school year, they showed their school spirit by supporting their teams.

FTA  TEACHERS

The 1984/85 FTA membership included a group of 43. FTA was involved in club activities such as, candy sales, conventions, conferences, poetry and speaking contests, Dad/Daughter BB games, and Christmas caroling at the nursing homes. The advisors for this year were Mrs. Elaine Warden, Mrs. Ann Douglas, and Mr. Tom Moore.

FHA

FHA was involved in many activities this year such as celebrating their 40th birthday, sponsoring their first A-OK cookoff, and baking and serving the most delicious Valentine cookies to the sweethearts and parents of PVHS.

"Don't you wish you had a hat like that!" FHA members celebrated FHA's 40th Birthday with a lot of help from Ronald himself.

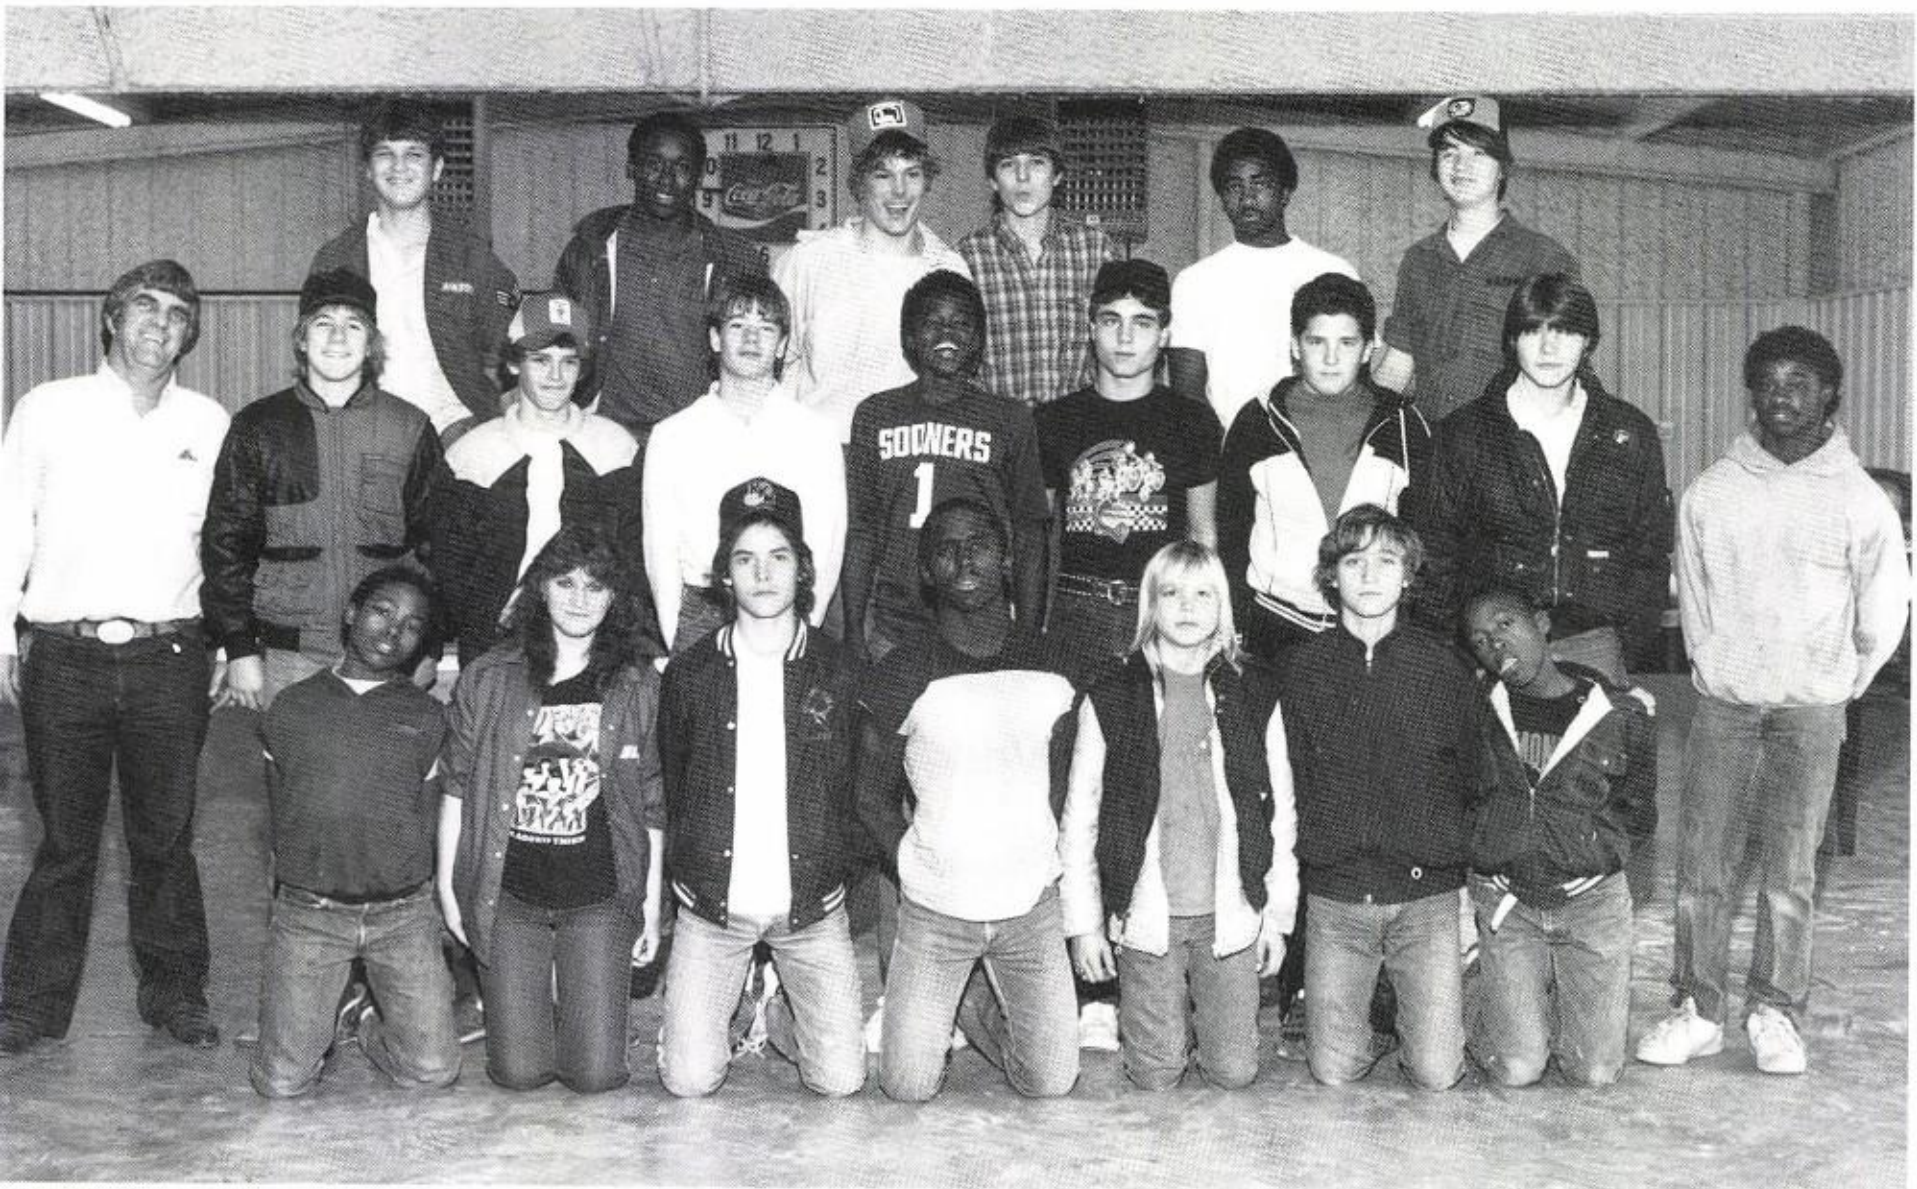

CVET.... BUILDING A BETTER FUTURE

Always busy with a new project CVET repairs a sidewalk.

The CVET had many responsibilities this year that they fulfilled, such as moving the mats during wrestling matches, building a fence for FFA. Among the other projects they laid concrete for a new sidewalk in the school's courtyard.

Thanks, guys!

D R A M A

This was the second year for the Drama Class and all things seemed to go well. At the PTO Teacher Appreciation Banquet an oral interpretation of a poem each student had chosen was given. They put on a children's play "Silly Soup" which was held at the Jackson and Whitehead schools. They also did much of the set work and make-up on the all school play "Up the Down Staircase."

Michelle Bone, MeChelle Cantwell, Michelle Coffey, Dawn Standley, Mrs. Shirley Caves and Lar-

Programs Expand

A few years ago if we asked a PVHS student what student council was for, we would probably have heard about spirit activities, but among other projects are the student exchange program and playing Cupid on Valentine's Day. Under the guidance of Mrs. Debi Reynolds, this year's STUCO has really been great and they plan to expand even more next year.

Explorer Post 73 started March 1, 1982 with six members. It is a high-adventure post with its main interests being outdoor activities, car and gun shows, concerts and community service projects. These projects have helped the PV Police Department, Oklahoma State Wildlife Department, PV United Fund and the PV City Lake and others.

In May 1985 Post 73 placed first in the Oklahoma State Explorer Olympics, which qualified it for the National Explorer Olympics held in Colorado in June. With 45 members, the post has the honor of being the largest post in the state and is also the longest lasting explorer post in PV history of scouting.

Post 73's advisor is Robert Nichols and Clint Riddle is the associate advisor. Chad Tipton is the president, Michael Dobbins, vice-president, and Gary Perkinson, secretary. Explorers is for boys from 14-20.

PANTHERS CLAIM BI-DISTRICT CROWN

Two-a-days and summer weightlifting really paid off for the Panthers in '84. The result was the best season in 38 years. Teamwork, dedication and that Panther Pride won the team their title as Bi-District Champs. This 12-1 season was a good one and hopefully future seasons will continue to improve.

Did you get the license number of that truck?

JACKSON PLACES THIRD AT STATE

PVHS wrestlers had a hard time at Regionals. Out of the eight wrestlers qualifying for the meet, only one, Rodney Jackson, went on to State, where he finished 3rd. The wrestlers did a great job this season, and hopefully, with more working out and practice, will even be better next year.

FRESHMEN BREAK EVEN

Freshmen wrestling turned out to be an exciting season. Three of the junior high wrestlers helped the high school team at some tournaments and duals by doing their part on the mat. Their own record, 5 wins and 5 losses, showed that they had come a long way, but still had a way to go. They are looking forward to next year.

Michael Dobbins, Scott Watkins and Bates Tunnell, above, all qualified for the High School State Track Meet.

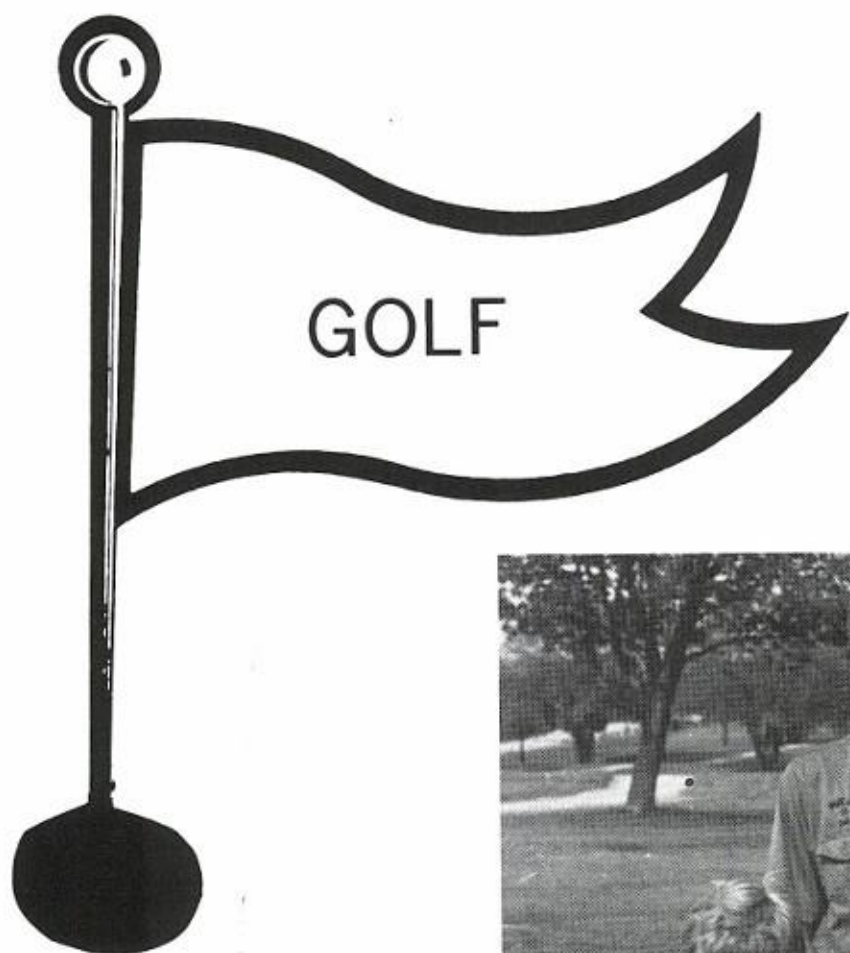

TRIO QUALIFIES FOR STATE

The 9th grade boys track team had a very busy season this year. Many members did double duty, competing in both freshman and varsity meets and three even qualified for the high school state track meet at Mustang. Bates Tunnell, Scott Watkins, and Michael Dobbins all placed at the meet showing a promising future ahead for each in their high school careers.

The freshman boys placed 3rd in the Ardmore meet, 2nd at Ada, and were champions in their own Conference meet. The team as a whole had a very successful season and this success may be only a hint of greater things to come.

"Eat my dust!" exclaimed Gary Perkinson.

Joel Myers discovers that practice makes perfect.

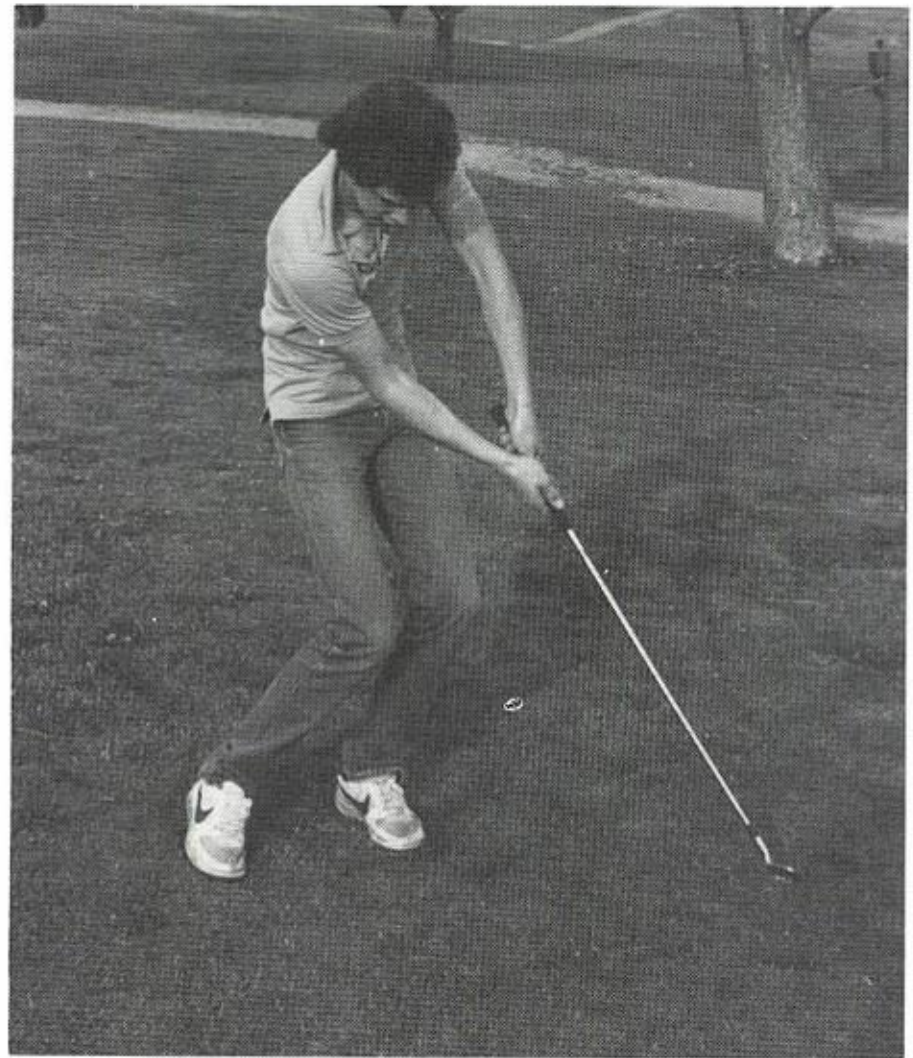

The golf team had an exceptional season. They received two trophies. One from the PV Invitational Tournament in which they placed First "A" Flight. The second one was from the Sulphur High Tournament in which they placed First 1st Flight. They placed third in the Arbuckle Conference which included other teams such as Marlow, Sulphur, Wynnewood, Lindsay and Purcell. They also placed Fifth in the regional tournament at Sulphur.

TENNIS ANYONE?

Ben, please don't throw your racket again.

What! John Hartzog not skiing? What is this a new sport?

Curt Sholar uses intense concentration to hit the ball.

The boys' tennis team was very successful during the '85 season. They qualified all 6 players for the State Tournament. They also finished first at our own tournament. They took third at the Chickasha Tournament and finished second at Regional, but qualified Ben Clark at #1 singles, David Ferris and Matt Clark at #1 Doubles, John Hartzog at #2 Singles, and Stacy Brooks and Curt Sholar at #2 Doubles.

Coach Sanders was also named Region Five Coach of the Year for Tennis.

BASEBALL

1985 was an exciting season for the Panthers. They started out slow, losing 3 of 5 games by a total of 3 runs. It took them a while to get everyone in the right position and to get the bats going.

The team consisted of a very exceptional group of young men with plenty of talent. Lynn Self now owns the new school record for homeruns. Greg Buckner was the most winning pitcher in school history with a record of 47-9. He was also 7th in the nation with 462 career strike outs.

The Panthers placed 2nd in the annual Leopard Classic where they were beaten by Binger 8-4 in the championship game. They also placed 4th in the Duncan SOI tournament.

The district championship for the second year in a row had begun their road to the state tournament in Tulsa. Regionals were held in Byng. The Panthers were regional runner-up after being beaten by Byng 7-1 and 10-0.

The majority of the team will be back next year. Including Tommy Riddle who lead state class 3A in doubles with 19.

The Panther's final season record was 23-10.

COLOPHON

Volume 57 of the Panther was compiled by the year-book staff members. After the final deadline 375 copies were published by American/Josten's Publishing Company of Topeka, Kansas. The book size is collegiate or 9 x 12. It contains 152 pages printed on 191 gloss paper. The total cost exceeded $10,500.

News Gothic and News Gothic Bold number 27 were used as type styles. Headlines and sub-headlines were 36 point and 18 point respectively. Other headlines were art work chosen by the staff members. Body copy and captions were 12 point and 8 point. The division pages were designed by Josten's.

The cover was printed on mission grain and is silk-screen red and white on black.

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

The Daily Democrat for the use of their sports negatives; Blunck Studios for mug shots and group shots; Tony Rust, Susan Thompson, Timmie Clark, Dean Hill, Mary Meinders and Eric Strickland for the use of negatives and pictures; also Johnna Larimore, Josten's representative for helping when needed.

C'EST FINI!
